SOUTHERN LANDS AND IMMIGRATION.

Nothing is destined to play a more effective part in solving political as well as material problems in the South than the element of immigration. Political history is founded in natural history, and all government and all law most ultimately rest upon indisputable social facts. What the South may be in respect to internal politics, to industry, production and commerce, is to be determined by what she will be in respect to population. In this question of population, indeed, all her hopes pivot; about it all her fears revolve. The flagitious scheme of negro-radical supremacy, devised by partisan selfishness and malignity, cannot be fought successfully by political weapons alone. To live it down, is the only way to effect its utter defeat and permanent suppression. And to live it down, we must be favored by the preponderance of needed elements of population. Left in their normal relations to the white people of the South, the freed blacks, it is true, would not be a source of political danger, and would more and more contribute, as thousands of them are now contributing, to the material prosperity of the country. But all past experience, corroborated by all contemporary observation, testifies that political power—the power to make laws and administer government for themselves, and for others wholly different from themselves—confided unqualifiedly to such classes, works like poison in their blood. It demoralizes, it maddens them. And this is not because they are naturally more wicked, cruel and reckless than other people; but because they belong, for the most part, to that section of the human family which, in respect to the awful responsibilities of political sovereignty, is naturally weak and incompetent.—What the Indians and mongrels of Mexico, and the negroes and mongrels of St. Domingo, entrusted with this sovereignty, have made of those countries, a negro-radical dominion, unchecked by the influx of wholesome ingredients of population, would at length make of the South. As there is obviously no hope of regenerating St. Domingo and Mexico except through change of population, it is obviously the part of wisdom and patriotism in our case to take measures without delay for interposing such elements of population as are best calculated to avert the doom which misplaced political power has brought upon the countries whose warning examples are above referred to.

It is time that all of us, in the cities and in the rural districts, whether devoted to commerce or to agriculture, to professional avocations or to mechanical arts, should recognize in the most practical manner the indispensability of this policy to the salvation of the South. And we cannot give this recognition without affording, to the extent of our ability, instant and substantial encouragement to immigration from Europe and from the Northern and Western States; for such an immigration is absolutely necessary to the success of the policy.

THE IMPEACHMENT IN YELLOW COVER.

The Petersons, of Philadelphia, have hurried out, with admirable enterprise, a cheap edition, in yellow paper cover, of "The Great Impeachment and Trial of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, Illustrated with portraits of the principal personages." This publication comprises all public matter appertaining to the case, from the preliminary proceedings in the House down to the vote of acquittal by the Senate, and the whole makes an octavo volume of nearly three hundred pages, which is about the average size of the cheap and trashy sensational novels of the day. It is no doubt proper and useful that the contents of the volume should have been first collected and published in this crude form, before passing under the sifting and abridging hand of the historian. And it would be well for the fame of those who caused to accumulate this mass of statement, evidence, argument and declamation, accusatory and defensive, if all record of the event should perish and be forgotten among the rubbish of yellow covered literature. But no such good fortune awaits them. The wretch who is born to be hanged will never be drowned. For a like reason the authors of impeachment may crave in vain from the future the poor boon of oblivion. Nothing can save them from the crucifixion of history. The irrepressible contempt and loathing of all enlightened and honorable contemporaries are but a faint foreshadowing of that climax of scorn and infamy on which their names are to be finally gibbeted.

"Fearful accident in an attempt to cross one of the Andys" is the title of a picture in Leslie's Illustrated. In the back ground are several lofty peaks white with snow.—The apex of the central peak is carved into the shape of the countenance of President Johnson. Several adventurous persons had attempted to cross that lofty peak, and the picture represents them paying the penalty of their temerity. They are falling down the precipitous side of the unattainable peak toward a horrible gulf. In the middle ground on the extreme left is Greely tumbling down the steep descent. He has rolled over on his back, head down, clutching convulsively a copy of the Tribune in his right hand, his legs kicking in the air. In the center is the mustached Logan, with his eyes glaring with horror as he helplessly glides doweward. On the extreme right is Sumner, flat on his belly, in vain thrusting forward his stalwart arms to stay his swift progress to destruction. In the foreground, on the left, is Forney, plunging downward head-foremost, with hands stretched out in fear. In the center is Thad Stevens, his shrivelled, superannuated body rushing to the verge of the precipice, his countenance stamped with malignant passions and a look of suffering, as though he was already realizing the agonies of the damned. On the extreme right is Butler on his back, heels up, with hands clenched in rage, and face repulsive with baffled hate mingled with terror. All the six in this dreadful companionship of peril are plunging toward an awful gulf, over which is inscribed the word "Oblivion." Above them, "Andy," with a countenance serenely complacent, casts a sidelong glance at the adventurers who sought to "cross" his lofty peak, and incurred their ruin.

The last new drama is called "The Last Days of Stantonius." Act I, "stick;" act II, stick; act III, cut stick.

Admiral Semmes and his brother, who are practicing law in Mobile, recently asked the Secretary of the Treasury to forward them a copy of a certain document which they propose to use in defending a client who was indicted for selling lottery tickets. Mr. McCulloch refused and the Semmes Bros. have written him another letter asserting their rights as citizens to the paper in question, and making a peremptory demand for it.

On Wednesday the Bostonians observed a peculiar disc and circle around the sun, which has caused the cause thereof to be investigated, and one of the savans of the Hub has declared that the appearance was attributable "to the interior diaphanicity of the circumferential adumbration, in photomeric comparison with the superjacent cirro-cumuli," and that "the phenomenon was merely higrometric." If the Bostonians are satisfied with this explanation, we are.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR.

ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.
To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.
The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined, with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

CONGRESSIONAL LEGISLATION.

The following section of the Reconstruction Acts, until modified or amended or rescinded by Congress, is the law, so far as Congress can make an unconstitutional act the law:

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

Congress has not yet changed, nor has it proposed to change, the above important section. It declares that any civil government, which may exist in the Southern or "rebel" States, until Congress shall admit the people thereof to representation in the Congress of the United States, shall be provisional. Secondly, that no person shall be eligible to office, under such provisional governments, who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third Section of the so called Howard amendment. The Commanding Generals in all the Districts have uniformly agreed that, in accordance with the laws of Congress, no new officer, appointed or elected during the continuance of the provisional governments, is eligible, who cannot take the test oath.

It has been claimed that a member of a Legislature, or a member of Congress, is not an officer of the State or of the United States. Hence, some have thought it strange that Gen. Canby should have included in his order members of the Legislature, who are to take the test oath. Gen. Meade entertained the same opinion, but Gen. Grant ordered him to suspend the order as to members of the Legislature of Georgia. The authority of Gen. Grant to suspend the test-oath, in this case, may well be doubted. The intention of Congress to require it of members of the Legislature, during the existence of the provisional governments, seems apparent, from the circumstance, that it makes the fact of a man's having been a member of a State Legislature, prior to and during the war, the reason why it includes him among other disfranchised officers in the Howard amendment. If Congress thus intended, it is plain that no other power, but the Congress itself, can suspend the requisition.

The Supplemental Act No. 2, passed at the July session of 1867, provides:

SECTION 9. That all members of said Boards of Registration and all persons hereafter elected or appointed to office in said military districts, under any so-called State or municipal authority or by detail or appointment of the District Commanders, shall be required to take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

From this it is probable, in view of the fact that Congress makes the having been a member of Congress or of a Legislature a reason for disfranchisement, that Gen. Canby includes members of the Legislature among those persons elected to office who are required to take the test oath. If, however, in the meaning of the several reconstruction acts, a person elected to the General Assembly is not elected to an office, then neither Gen. Canby nor Gen. Grant are authorized to require of them the test-oath.

But Gen. Canby, in his order, seems to countenance the idea that, if the disabilities of any of those elected or appointed to office shall have been removed by Congress, then, in that case, he may suspend the test-oath as to such persons, during the continuance of the provisional governments. If these be his views, we think he is incorrect, unless Congress shall, at the time it removes their disabilities, also modify or amend its supplemental act requiring the oath. Until Congress admits the people of the State to representation in Congress, the existing government must be provisional, and all officers elected or appointed since July, 1867, must take the test oath, whether their disabilities are removed or not, until Congress modifies its own reconstruction acts. The removal, therefore, of the disabilities of persons disfranchised by the reconstruction acts cannot, under the law as it is, relieve them from the obligation of taking the test oath, so long as the government is provisional. If this be so, it is plain that until Congress admits the States to representation, or abolishes the requirement that officers shall not take the test-oath, which the Omnibus Bill does not do, we can have no Legislature in North Carolina, nor can most of the State officers be installed into office, for the reason that they cannot take the test-oath.

THE CHASE MOVEMENT.—A call is published for a meeting at the Continental Hotel, in Philadelphia, on the 10th. inst., (yesterday,) of the friends of Chief Justice Chase, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of presenting his name as a candidate for President of the United States. The call is signed by John Welch, William F. Johnson and J. W. Frazier.

Thad. Stevens said it "wouldn't hurt 'em much" to commit perjury on the impeachment vote. Since Grimes has been burned in effigy, Ross threatened with shooting, and Van Winkle warned not to return to his State, it would seem as if the danger lay in not committing perjury.

THE "SOUTHERN STATE OFFICERS."

The telegram gave us the text, on yesterday, of the Bill which passed the House of Representatives, on Tuesday, "inaugurating the Southern State Officers." So far as North Carolina is concerned, this Bill does not remedy any of the preliminary difficulties with which "reconstruction" has to contend.

The Bill provides, in the first place, that the Legislatures of the several States are authorized to meet on the day fixed in the new Constitutions, or, in default of such provision in the Constitutions, certain other times of meeting are designated. The North Carolina Constitution provides that the Legislature shall meet on the fifteenth day after its acceptance by Congress. So that feature remains unaltered.

The Bill provides, in the second place, that whenever either of the non represented States shall be admitted to representation in Congress, the State and county officers, duly elected and qualified under the Constitution thereof, may be inaugurated without delay.

But the so-called Reconstruction Acts and the Omnibus Bill stipulate that no State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, until the Legislature thereof shall have ratified the Howard Amendment. Meanwhile, Gen. Canby's order requires the test oath of all civil officers, including members of the Legislature.

So that the two old difficulties remain:

1. How can the Legislature meet to ratify the Howard Amendment, when scarcely a dozen of its members, in either House, outside of the negro element, can take the ironclad?

2. When the Omnibus Bill passes, and the Constitution is accepted, who will be Governor of North Carolina? Will we not have an interregnum? The Constitution says the State officers elect shall enter upon the discharge of their duties ten days after it is approved by Congress,—but Gen. Canby says that they must first take the test oath. Holden cannot do this, nor can Tod Caldwell, there will be no Speaker of the Senate, and Gov. Worth will be out of office, we suppose.

The game is pretty much as well-blocked as it was before. The knot is not yet cut, and Congress will have to try again. Congress, in these muddy complications, which have resulted from its blind and malignant legislation, on the subject of reconstruction, has forcibly illustrated the admonitory lesson of the old rhythm:

"Alas! what a tangled web we weave,
When once we practice to deceive!"

VIEWING THE SOUTHERN STATES in the light of conquered provinces, which they are practically, under the iron hand of Radical and military rule, (though, under the theory of our Goverment, we hold they cannot be so really or of right,) it is the proudest evidence, that could possibly be afforded, of the manliness, sincerity and honesty of Southern character, that there is so wide a divergence between the views and sentiments of our people and those of the party which enforces the authority and powers of an assumed Conqueror. For now over three years, through the agency of military satraps, the monstrous iniquity of the Bureau, and Congressional legislation predicated upon the idea of conquest, the South has been attacked at every weak point, which ordinarily shakes the political virtue of a people. Threats of confiscation have been employed to overawe the hesitating, and glaring instances of arbitrary arrest and punishment have occurred to intimidate the community at large. But amid all such crucial tests, those who have surrendered their integrity, crooked the hinges of the knee, and cravenly accepted the exactions of the oppressor, as right and proper, are small in number and utterly insignificant and disreputable personally.—While our people have bowed the head in peaceful and dignified submission to what has been imposed upon them by the heavy and unrelenting hand of a despotic and fanatical faction, they have not sacrificed their manhood and self-respect by fawning upon the tyranny that smote them.

For this, the people of the South will stand out in as bold relief on the page of history, as for their valor and endurance during the war. In most instances of military subjection, recorded in history heretofore, the conquered have shown a lamentable facility in adapting their views and even conforming their habits and tastes to those of the oppressor, and subordinating their prestige and convictions to a mean and mercenary desire to purchase immunity by servility.

But proud in their humiliation, unshaken in their fidelity to principle by contumely and wrong, devotsd to the principles of constitutional liberty, though shorn of its blessings and privileges, the true white men of the South have proven themselves inaccessible to the bribes and unmoved by the menaces of the party in power. We have such an opinion of the tenacity and honesty of the masses of our people, that we do not believe that forty years of political bondage could so far demoralize them, as to make them forget their detestation of Radicalism, as illustrated in this day and country.

GRANT'S RECORD.—Radical experts are now busy at work searching for Grant's record. In this labor of love they are necessarily satisfied with a very small reward. The well defined opinions he has been known to express acquire, however, an immense significance, in view of their scarcity, and stand out like tombstones in a sparsely settled graveyard. At present they sum up as follows:

No. 1. "Thinks negro suffrage unwise, and calculated to produce a war of races.—Doolittle's speech, Oct. 2, 1865.

No. 2. He expelled the Jews from his military lines on the plea that they were dishonest as a class.—Order Aug. 11, '62.

No. 3. Opposed to the freedom of the press.—Letter Feb. 17, 1868.

No. 4. In favor of stripping the President of all appointing and removing powers.—Letters of August, 1867.

No. 5. In favor of Impeachment; he thinks its defeat would result in "bloodshed."—Letter May 12, 1868.

No. 8. Endorses negro suffrage at the South, and rejects it at the North.—Chicago Platform.

NEW HANOVER AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

We have been pleased to notice, on several occasions, the activity and energy displayed by the New Hanover Agricultural Society. Besides the regular County Association, composed of many of the most intelligent and enterprising farmers, they have a Club formed in each section or neighborhood of the County, which holds frequent meetings, at which essays are read and conversation engaged in upon subjects immediately connected with the farming interests. These Clubs are auxillary to the County Society. The County Society holds several meetings during the year.

The annual meeting was recently held at Lecsburg, when the officers were elected, and Committees on various subjects made their reports and several addresses were delivered. It was resolved to hold a county Fair, next Fall, at Wilmington. There is a proposition to hold a Convention of the counties in the Cape Fear region. We are gratified at the movements of this Association, and hope to see its example followed throughout the State. We shall publish the report of the Committee on labor in to morrow's issue.

CONSERVATIVE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION.—The call for this Convention, to be held in New York, on the 4th. of July, which we published a day or two since, is signed by nine Generals and ten Colonels, bearing names well known in the United States Army during the war. Such are the men who declare that it is the purpose of their Convention "to advise and co-operate with the Democratic party in presenting to the nation a candidate for President, who will command the support of all who desire to extinguish the revenges of the war, abolish the military despotisms now ruling the South, and give back to the Southern States the rights of self-Government and of an equal and fraternal Union."

The Norfolk Journal, commenting on this call, truly observes:

"We have no doubt that the men who can utter such noble sentiments have done some hard fighting; for the real soldiers of both armies, if they had had the power, would have settled matters forever at Appomattox Court House. It is the stay-at-home fellows that have kept the wounds of their country from healing, by always tearing them open. But the people, including among them such soldiers as those of this Convention, will once more possess the power, when those who are always professing never-dying hate will be put into political limbo where they can do no more mischief to their country. So mote it be! Amen."

DELEGATES TO THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.—The Secretaries of the State Conservative Convention, which assembled in this city, on the 5th. of February last, will forward, as soon as possible, the proper certificates for the delegates and alternates appointed for the State at large.

Secretaries of District Conventions are requested to furnish, as soon as practicable, the necessary credentials to the District delegates.

We hope to be able to announce, in a few days, the consummation of an arrangement, by which delegates and visitors can be transported over the Raleigh and Gaston and Seaboard and Roanoke Roads, and thence to New York via the New York and Norfolk Steamship Line, at half fare.

P. S. We are just officially advised of the final consummation of an arrangement, by which persons will be transported all the way to New York and back, by all the routes, for one fare. Prticulars to-morrow.

THE ARKANSAS BILL.—The following is the bill as it passed both Houses. It is now with the President.

"Whereas the people of Arkansas, as in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled 'an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States,' passed March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, have framed and adopted a constitution of State government which is republican in form, and the Legislature of said State has duly ratified the amendment of the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article 14; therefore, &c., that the State of Arkansas is entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental condition: That the Constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens in the United States of the right to vote, who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State; Provided, that any alteration of said Constitution, prospective in its effect, may be made in regard to time and place of residence of the voters."

The Boston Daily Advertiser has the following: "The great grandfather of ex President Fillmore was John Fillmore, of Ipswich. He was a brave man, and one of some note. Having been captured by a pirate, he rose with others, killed the captain and two seamen, imprisoned the crew, six in number, and brought the vessel into Boston harbor. All the parties were executed. This was in 1724."

Panniers have come out more boldly in Paris. The most prodigious style is, of course, called "l'Imperatrice." There are two steel baskets, one for each hip, exactly like the wicker receptacles in which butlers carefully carry old port or Chambertin up to table; between these bulges out a lump far behind, and this is only the under foundation for puffy silk contrivances above.

California will eventually become a great wine country. Los Angeles county has 14,000,000 grape vines, which last year produced 1,500,000 gallons of wine, and 160,000 gallons of brandy. The town of Anaheim, besides many grape vines, has a plain upon which are growing 10,000 choice fruit trees of various descriptions.

A gentleman saw a man in the neighborhood of Paris, gathering what appeared to be mushrooms. Seeing that they were not mushrooms, he warned the man with some warmth, telling him that they were poisonous. The countryman smiled and replied: "Thanks, Monsieur, for your kindness; but I am not going to eat them, but to sell them."

The New York Commercial Advertiser reconstructs Thomson with reference to the season just passed: "Hail, drizzling Spring! Diptherial dampness, hail!"

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, 44 90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,309, in 1866, $3,522,576, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $277,093.59, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,207.64, making a grand total of $797,307.23 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elisur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—S. D. Harrison, Family Grocer, Fayetteville St., announces fresh arrivals in his line. Mr. H. keeps up with the times and always has a desirable stock on hand.

Kerosene Oil, Lamps, Chimneys, Wicks, Oil Cans, Goblets, Tumblers, Lager Beer and Ale Glasses: J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

General Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of North Carolina, on the first Monday in July: C. Dewey, Agent.

GEN. CLITZ.—We regret to hear it rumored that this gentleman will soon leave this command on a protracted furlough.—We have not heard it intimated who will be his successor, as Post-Commander. He has been with us but a short time, but has made a very favorable impression. He is one of those soldiers who will rejoice when the rule of the sword yields to that of a stable civil government, and who is not fond of carrying his authority to arbitrary stretches.

COMMENCEMENT AT WAKE FOREST.—Persons desiring to attend the Commencement, at Wake Forest, to day, can reach there in ample time, as the Raleigh & Gaston Train, which leaves at 9.15, this morning, arrives there by 10 o'clock.

A special Train will leave Wake Forest, to-night, at 12 o'clock, for the accommodation of visitors.

Persons desirous of visiting the College will go and come for one fare.

FINE VEGETABLES.—The Rev. Dr. Smith has presented us with some remarkably fine cucumbers and squashes grown in his garden near this city, some account of which we have heretofore given. It is not often, at this season of the year, that such splendid specimens of these varieties of vegetables can be seen.

THE POSTERS for Ames' Great Circus and Menagerie are up. Advertisement on Monday. It exhibits in Goldsboro' on the 20th, in this city on the 22nd., and at Weldon on the 23rd. It will not stop at intermediate places.

THE CITY continues full of strangers in attendance upon the Federal and Supreme Courts.

ARE WE TO HAVE A REPETITION OF THE RAINS OF LAST YEAR?—It is a somewhat singular fact that the heavy Summer rains of last year commenced on the 7th of June, the very day on which a wet season seems to have been inaugurated the present year. Sunday was equally showery with some of the most rainy days of April and May, and yesterday was not devoid of rain. We sincerely trust that we are not to be visited with another such evidence of the Almighty's chastening hand, as shown in the floods which spread devastation far and wide over our Southern country last year.—Wilmington Journal.

Yesterday was one of the most continuously rainy days of the season. We apprehend damage to the wheat crop. A few such rains, at short intervals, would swell the creeks and streams to freshet-height.

A FUNNY CASE.—A very amusing case was brought before a Justice of New Albany a few days ago. The Ledger reports it as follows:

"Adam Reinhardt, an old German, over whose head the frosts of about seventy winters have passed, was arrested last night by officer Sandford charged with stealing a hen from Mary Bowen. The officer found the chicken in a basket in his house, and it being proof positive that a petit larceny had been committed, he was placed in jail.

The prisoner, with the chicken confined in a basket, was taken before Justice Baxter, and the charge of petit larceny was drawn up by prosecutor Jackson, setting forth that a hen had been feloniously taken by prisoner. When the charge was read the hen cackled, and upon an examination of the basket by Reinhardt's counsel, it was discovered that she had laid an egg. The counsel moved to quash the indictment on the ground that it did not set forth in full the articles taken. The prosecutor looked dumbfounded at the turn things had taken, and asked leave of the Court to amend so as to incorporate the egg. While the Justice was deliberating, the Colonel concluded he would examine the basket, and in doing so the hen floundered around, breaking the egg. This circumstance made the affidavit correct, provided the trial was proceeded with before another egg was laid. The prosecutor took in the situation at a glance and hurried on the trial, which resulted in the triumphant acquittal of Reinhardt, notwithstanding circumstances appeared so greatly against him."

In the last Budget of Fun, Butler with streaming tears sits upon Fessenden's door steps, in the character of an abandoned female, and laments the dying or dead infant, "Impeachment," (which lies ghastly in her lap,) and splutters out, "Oh, William Pitt Fessenden! Base deceiver! It was as much your babe as mine—why didn't you support it—but I'll lay it at your door!"

STATE ITEMS.

Mr. J. A. Charlotte, of the firm of McLean and Stotesberry, N. Y., a native of Newbern, has presented to the Newbern Memorial Association eight pieces of blue flag-stone, 3 by 5 feet, to be used in the completion of the Confederate Mausoleum in that place. He also generously offers to be one of twenty to give $50 each towards the erection of a monument to the memory of our gallant dead.

The Newbern carpet-baggers, on Monday, had their carpet bags packed to leave for Raleigh, to greet the new State officers and exchange congratulations over the admission of North Carolina. So we gather from the Journal of Commerce. It was confidently expected by the Reds, in this city, that the Omnibus would pass on Monday. Gen. Laflin telegraphed that it would. But it didn't.

The Wilmington Star estimates that the proportion of the deaths of colored to white children in that city, during the month of May, was ten to one.

A meeting of the farmers of Mecklenburg is to be held in that county, on Saturday, to devise measures to induce white immigrants to come to that section of country. Judge Osborne and Col. H. C. Jones will address the meeting. This is the right kind of move.

Twenty-one prisoners, one white and twenty colored, (the usual proportion,) convicted of crimes and misdemeanors at the session of New Hanover Criminal Court, last week, were conveyed to the County Work-House on Monday.

A Chapel Hill correspondent of the Biblical Recorder, giving an account of Commencement, says that "Gov. Seymour remarked to a gentleman, that the orations on the occasion would suffer nothing by comparison with those of Harvard and other famous schools of the North."

WHAT WILL THE DEMOCRATS DO?

It has been asked, "What will the Democracy do, if we help to place them in power?" The question is so well and appropriately answered and so satisfactorily summed up by General W. A. Gorman, of Minnesota, in a late speech, that we insert the answer here:

"If the Democrats get power in the government, they will reduce the tariff tax on all your tea, and what you drink and wear. They will restore the Union, and turn over all the Southern States' expenses to be paid by the South alone.

We will turn out and abolish ten thousand abolition Freedmen's Bureau office-holders, and save millions of dollars to the people's pockets.

We will bid the South support themselves, and go to raising cotton and sugar, and we will continue to raise produce to feed them.

We will pay the public debt in the same currency we pay you and the same you pay each other, and thus save millions more in the pockets of the people.

If we pay the rich in gold, we will pay you in gold. If we pay you in paper money, we will pay plethoric bond-holders in paper money.

We will enact laws to enable you to buy your goods where you can buy cheapest, and sell where you can get the best price.

We will protect labor from the encroachment of capital.

We will leave each State to govern itself, limited only by the Federal Constitution.

We will reduce the army in the South and send them to the plains to protect the frontier and new routes to the Far West.

We will restore commerce, peace and good will between the North and South.

We will reduce taxes, both State and National.

We will lessen the office-holders, and release you from taxation to support them.

We will enact laws inside and not outside the Constitution.

We will restore peace at home and maintain your honor abroad.

We will inaugurate a day of moderation, order and good will, instead of hate and ill will, as now taught by Jacobin politicians.

We will give equal rights to all, and grant exclusive privileges to none.

We will substitute calm statesmanship for mad Jacobinism.

We will make pets no longer of negroes, at the expense of the whites, nor force suffrage for them at the expense and against the will of those who have created and maintained the government.

Correspondence of the Boston Post.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

WASHINGTON, June 6, 1868.—The subject of a platform for the National Democracy in the next Presidential election is now exciting much interesting discussion among party leaders here, most of whom repudiate the ideas expressed in the columns of the New York World. The Democratic politicians in Washington insist that the platform resolutions shall be few and very brief. The living issues between the parties being now reduced to the single proposition:—"Whether or not this is a white man's Government," on this proposition let the fight be made, they say, and let this single issue stand out in bold relief. There is a large number of minor issues which can be settled in future, but the result of the approaching Presidential contest must and will determine whether this once proud Republic is to be placed absolutely under negro control. The Radicals will exert themselves to raise and combat side issues of an unimportant character, but the policy of the Conservatives will be to hold them squarely to their platform—negro supremacy in the South; in the north, States' rights. If they can do so, let their speakers defend this single proposition. If the negroes of the South are to constitute the dominant party there, they will hold the balance of power between the parties at the north, and thus rule the whole country.

While the Radicals say the Democrats can find no candidate for the Presidency, they name a score for us, one of whom the National Convention, very likely, will select in July, and the people elect in November. The Radicals had better save their breath to cool their porridge.—Boston Post.

May was a very rainy month. There were only eight days on which no rain fell, and the actual duration of all the showers was one hundred and fifty hours eighteen minutes. The depth of water that fell was 1.189 inch more than during the month of May last year. These are the figures for New York.

"Dan" Voorhees intends to run for Congress in his, the sixth Indiana, district.—Four republicans are in the field for the nomination. Mr. Coburn, the present member, will probably not be a candidate.

From the Memphis Avalanche, June 5.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN TENNESSEE.

The most horrid, atrocious human butchery we have ever recorded, was perpetrated early yesterday morning.

Capt. Matt Dwyer, residing near Raleigh, came to John Lanahan's house, on Wolf river, near the bridge, about three miles north of the city, on Monday, to remain several days. Wednesday night Lanahan, who is quarrelsome when drunk, became intoxicated and commenced abusing his wife. He struck her a blow, in the presence of Capt. Dwyer, who, exasperated at the cowardly action, promptly knocked the brute down, giving him a good beating and kicking. Lanahan made no further demonstration toward his wife, and satisfied that it would not be necessary to protect her further, Captain Dwyer, some time afterward, sought his sleeping-room, occupied by himself, a step-son of Lanahan's, aged sixteen, and a man whose name we have not learned.

Early yesterday morning, after having adjusted his troubles with his wife, both having occupied the same room as usual, Lanahan arose, dressed himself, obtained an axe, and left the house. He cut wood a short time and then returned, bringing the weapon with him. He proceeded stealthily to Dwyer's room, where the Captain and the boy were soundly sleeping. Carelessly walking to Dwyer's bed, he suddenly raised the axe and dealt the unconscious victim a powerful blow. The sharp weapon was buried to the handle in the Captain's neck, nearly severing the head from the shoulders, and producing instant death. The boy, awakened by the blow, sprang out of bed only to discover Dwyer a bloody corpse, and the bed crimsoned with gore. The man in the other bed was awake when Lanahan entered, but paid no attention to the murderer until the bloody work had been accomplished. Before recovering from the horror with which the ghastly spectacle filled him, the murderer again coolly threw the axe, still dripping with blood, over his shoulder and left the room.

He returned to his wife's apartment, carefully washed and redressed himself, putting on a clean shirt, and left the house carelessly, as though nothing had happened. The alarm was quickly raised, and some one hurried into the city for the police. Officer Sauerman was found, and in company with a couple of others, started in pursuit of the murderer. A short distance beyond Chelsea, Lanahan was observed leisurely approaching, evidently with the intention of surrendering himself to the authorities. He was brought in and lodged in jail. He confessed having killed Dwyer, and expressed no regrets, but sought to convey the impression that Dwyer had been improperly intimate with his wife, who is quite old and unlikely to attract any one.

Captain Dwyer served during the war as a captain in the Fifteenth Tennessee (Confederate) regiment, a portion of the time commanded by Colonel Moses White, of this city.

A BOVINE BIOGRAPHY.—I was born in Nebraska. The farmer to whom I belonged paid a tax upon me as a part of his income during my vealhood. He sold me when I was three years old, and paid an income tax upon what I brought. I was nicely fatted until I weighed nearly a ton, by a Democrat on Weeping Water, who paid the Government eighteen cents for the privilege of selling me to a butcher, who pays a tax of ten dollars for the privilege of selling meat to the public. The butcher sold my tallow to a chandler, who made me, by paying a license as manufacturer, into candles for the poor people, who pay a five per cent. on candles to read by. My horns and hoofs are made into combs and glue, and pay another tax. My hide goes to the tanner, who pays a manufacturer's license, and is made into leather, upon which is an ad valorem tax of five per cent. The tanner will sell the leather to a wholesale dealer, who pays a mercantile license and an income tax, and he will sell it to the shoemaker, and the shoemaker will get up boots for the laborer, farmer and mechanic, and charge them enough for them to cover all the taxes enumerated, together with his own manufacturer's tax.—Nebraska City News.

BUTLER ON GRANT.—This satirical witticism is attributable to Butler: When Donnelly said Washburne carried Grant in his breeches pocket, Butler remarked, "it was the proper place for small change."

The president of the negro Loyal League at Elyton, Ala., is in jail for stealing bacon—caught in the act. By an oversight, he was not put on the Chicago delegation.—Boston Post.

Gen. Butler, who, Forney's Chronicle says, was born in Kinderhook, N. Y., kind o' hooked in New Orleans.

THE MUNICIPAL MUDDLE IN WASHINGTON, &C.

WASHINGTON June 10, M.

The complication in municipal affairs remains unchanged.

Bowen is in possession of the Mayor's office and still holds on to the Postmastership.

The Radicals in the Lower Board, by recognizing the Register's certificates, are all right; but they are crippled in the Upper Board, where they lack a quorum. One of the Aldermen, elected a year ago, is now acting with the Conservatives.

No important progress was made in the House, last night, on the Tax Bill.

Commissioner Bellnap' resignation, being contingent upon the confirmation, by the Senate, of his successor, amounts to no resignation.

It is stated that Butler and Logan have concluded to hold Woolley in confinement, until a quorum of the Committee shall be present.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 10. P. M.

Senate: The Omnibus admission bill was resumed. Nullification of Georgia relief clauses was confirmed by a large majority. An amendment permitting the relief clauses to operate for the benefit of loyal persons, was defeated by equally as large a vote.

An amendment ordering the inauguration of State officers without unnecessary delay, and declaring the elected officers excluded by the Federal laws or provisions of the fourteenth amendment ineligible, was adopted. The amendment caused considerable debate, from which it appears that its operations will vacate all offices to which incompetent persons have been elected, but that all elected, who accord with Congress, will be rendered competent in ample time by the removal of political disabilities.

The Senate is still in session.

House.—The Committee on Ways and Means reported a bill to increase the revenue and regulate imports and exports. Ordered to be printed.

A Bill relieving several Arkansians elected to office passed by the necessary two thirds.

Eldridge offered a resolution that the corruption Committee be ordered to examine Woolley at once. Several objections.

Butler said: That the Committee would be called for to-morrow, when, if Woolley answered properly, he would be discharged.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 10, P. M.

Bullock was on the Senate floor to-day engineering Georgia matters.

Butler has several Motions before him.

Peter Schwab, of Hamilton, Ohio, had a very easy examination yesterday, but is represented as being much disturbed to-day, when Butler asked him to explain the following telegrams:

"What can you do towards saving the country?
[Signed] WOOLLEY.

"Twenty thousand in Bank and as much more as may be needed.
(Signed) SCHWAB."

It is stated that Grossbeck is considering a letter from Mr. Johnson, tendering him the Treasury Secretaryship.

General Grant is at West Point.

It is understood that he opposed Alabama's readmission.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, June 10, P. M.

At noon to-day, Conway, the newly elected Mayor, presented himself at the City Hall and gave to Mayor Heath a copy of Gen. Buchanan's order announcing the election of the former to the office of Mayor.

Mayor Heath replied that he knew of no law authorizing the election in question; furthermore, he did not acknowledge the authority of Gen. Buchanan to issue said orders.

Conway replied, he called in obedience to the order to assume the duties of the office, and, if Heath did not acknowledge the authority, he should be under the necessity of reporting the fact to the Commanding General. Heath replied "I decline to give up the office."

Conway proceeded to Headquarters, and at 2½ o'clock, accompanied by Capt. Dellnasy, of Gen. Buchanan's Staff, returned to the City Hall and informed Mayor Heath that he had come to execute the order which he presented, directed to Capt. Dellnasy and signed by the Adjt. General, directing him to proceed to the City Hall and install Mr. Conway as Mayor.

Heath replied, that he was duly appointed Mayor of the city of New Orleans. His appointment was confirmed by Congress—that he knew of no election which was legal of a successor to fill his place; therefore, he did not recognize the authority of General Buchanan to remove him.

Captain Dellnasy retired and procured a squad of police, and placed Heath under arrest, and ordered him to deliver the keys and books of the office to Conway. Heath refused to comply without written orders which were given him.

Conway took charge of the Mayor's office and announced his Secretary John W. Overall.

Judge Whittaker informed Captain Dellnasy that a writ of quo warranto had been issued by Judge Duplantier of the Fifth District Court upon Conway. Capt. Dellnasy replied, that Conway was installed—that the writ would take its proper course, but could not interfere with the duties he was then discharging.

Heath having turned over the keys and books was released upon parole.

Before sending Capt. Dellnasy to install Conway, General Buchanan sent a communication to Heath, desiring his presence at Headquarters at his earliest convenience. Heath replied that he was officially engaged, but would call at the earliest opportunity compatible with his official duties.

Heath, to-day, received a letter containing a single word "stick," purporting to have been signed by five thousand friends.

Considerable excitement is prevailing throughout the city.

A strong body of police is at the City Hall.

Becker and Marriest, Recorders elect in the 1st. and 3rd. Districts, have qualified. Incumbent of Recordership refuses to give up the office, as it might prejudice a contest of the election which he is now engaged in.

FROM "PUNCH."

I have found out a gig-gig gift for my fuf fuf fair,
I have found where the rattlesnakes bub-bub-breed;
Will you co-co-come, and I'll show you the bub-bub-bear,
And the lions and tit-tit-tigers at fuf fuf-feed.

I know where the co-co-cockatoo's song
Makes mum-mum-melody through the sweet vale;
Where the mum-monkeys gig-gig-grin all the dy-long
Or gracefully swing by the tit-tit-tail.

You shall pip-play, dear, some did-did-delicate joke
With the bub-bub-bear on the tit-tit-top of his pip-pip-poll,
But observe 'tis forbidden to pip-poke
At the bub-bub-bear with your pip-pip-pink pip-pip-pip-parasol.

You shall see the huge elephant pip-pip-play,
You shall gig-gig-gaze on the sit-tit-stately raccoon;
And then, did-dear, together we'll stray
To the cage of the bub-bub-brute-faced bal-bab-baboon.

You asked (I r-r-remember it well,
And I bal-bal-loved you the m-m-more for the wish,)
To witness the bub-bub-beautiful pip-pip-pelican swallow the li-live little fuf-fuf-fish.

FATAL DUEL BETWEEN COLORED MEN AT SAVANNAH, GEORGIA.

The telgraph mentioned, a few days ago, that a duel between two colored men of Savannah, Ga., had occurred, in which one was killed. The affair took place on the 3d inst., and grew out of politics, the new vocation of the colored men of the South. The Savannah Republican of the 4th gives the following comment and account of the affray:

"Since the emancipation the colored man has been fast learning the usages and customs of refined socity; he has plunged deep into the mysteries of the law; gone into politics, and, forsaking his old favorite religion, has fast acquired the vices rather than the virtues of the race, which formerly held him in slavery. Whatever he was prohibited in his days of servitude he has entered into with a vim since his freedom has been proclaimed, and his love of the pernicious practice of carrying deadly weapons, and the use of the same, is well known to all our people. Latterly, also, he has acquired the practice of revenging his injuries, fancied or real, by means of the deadly code of honor, a relic of the past, which the civilization of our day and generation should long ago have done away with. Duels between colored men have, during the past two or three years, been not unfrequent in different parts of the country, and in the most instances have resulted in the killing or maiming of one or both parties.

Since the colored man has been brought into the political arena the names of Jackson Brandt and Eugene Morehead have been prominently before the citizens of Savannah. The former was the presiding officer of the Baker Council, No. 9, Union League of America, of which Bradley was the Secretary. The famous notice to the Republican, informing us that unless we ceased the course which we were pursuing, "twenty thousand loyal men would take the lawful means to suppress" us, was signed by Brandt at the instigation of Bradley. Dissensions occurred among the members of the league, and Baker Council fell to pieces, and at the late election Brandt worked with the Conservatives for the success of their ticket, and was subsequently elected president of a colored Conservative club, of which Morehead was one of the vice-presidents. The latter is well known as an ice-cream dealer in this city, who has always supported the cause of the white people, and who did loyal service in their behalf during the late election.

On Monday night, Morehead and Brandt were in company, and a quarrel sprung up between them. The former accused the latter of having played the part of a traitor to the white people, and accused him of having gained the confidence of the whites for the purpose of playing into the hands of the radicals. Brandt replied that he (Morehead) was a ——— liar. Further remarks of this nature ensued, and the parties then separated. The next day Brandt sent Morehead a challenge to fight a duel, which was promptly accepted; each party appointed his second, and all preliminary matters were arranged for the coming conflict. Efforts to reconcile the two, and to have the challenge withdrawn, were of no avail, and the affair was fully determined upon.

A little before six o'clock, yesterday morning, the two principals, with their seconds and a few friends, embarked for South Carolina. The expedition attracted the attention of a number of white men, who also obtained boats and followed after it. They went directly across to Screven's Ferry, and landed there and proceeded to the old dueling ground, where, without any loss of time, the final contest was prepared for. Brandt was seconded by Aleck Hardee and Morehead by D. H. Spearing. The weapons were double barrelled shot-guns, one barrel of each gun being loaded with sixteen buckshot. They then tossed up for choice of position, and the toss was won by Hardee for Brandt. The two were then placed in position, at fifteen paces distance from each other. They were perfectly cool and collected, and exhibited no sign of fear, but stood up with undaunted front and calm deliberation. The word was given by Spearing—"Are you ready? Fire"—and as the sound of the latter word reverberated upon the air, both guns were discharged almost simultaneously. Morehead exclaimed, "I've hit him," and at that instant Brandt fell and was picked up by his friends, and carried to the boat. Morehead was called up and shook hands with Brandt, in token of amity.

All hands then re-embarked, and in a short time arrived in this city. Brandt was badly wounded in both legs, and in the groin and thighs, the shot having scattered considerably. Eight shot struck him, and one of them cut a large artery, which caused him to bleed profusely, but despite the skill of the physicians, he bled to death. The affair created great excitement in the city. Yesterday afternoon Dr. R. P. Myers, coroner, held an inquest upon the dead body of Brandt. The jury rendered the following verdict: "Deceased came to his death from a gunshot wound from the hands of Eugene Morehead, in a duel, on the South Carolina shore."

Deceased was about thirty-five years of age, and formerly belonged to Capt. Tucker. Morehead was formerly a slave, and owned by Mistress Woolhoyter. He is a daring, determined man, and is famous for his fighting qualities."

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C., Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people — The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a especial use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
